NEWS RELEASE

Narragansett Bay Approved to Write Property and Casualty Insurance in Connecticut

Company to Enter Fifth Northeastern State

PAWTUCKET, RHODE ISLAND – January 22, 2016

Narragansett Bay Insurance Company (“NBIC”) announced that the company has been approved by the Connecticut Department of Insurance to write property and casualty insurance in Connecticut. Committed to expanding its presence along the Eastern Seaboard, Connecticut will mark the fifth state where the company provides homeowners insurance. The company is already a leading provider of homeowners insurance in Rhode Island, Massachusetts, New York, and New Jersey.

Residents of Connecticut will soon have access to NBIC’s competitively priced insurance products through a network of local independent agents. With a unique approach to homeowners insurance and a commitment to insuring homes in coastal states, NBIC will bring a new option to Connecticut homeowners.

“NBIC is thrilled to bring our coastal capacity, risk management expertise and strong service model to agents and homeowners in Connecticut,” said Tim Moura, NBIC’s Senior Vice President of Marketing, Agency & Client Services. “We look forward to partnering with Connecticut agents and associations to build a strong, consistent, and reliable presence in this important state.”

NBIC is currently working to establish a solid base of agency partners and expects to begin writing business in the state by mid-2016.
